Dr. Jayne's ALTERATIVE

This valuable preparation combines all the medicinal virtues of those articles which long experience has proved to possess the most safe and efficient alterative and desobstruent properties, producing for it a world-wide reputation as

THE GREAT PURIFIER OF THE BLOOD AND RENOVATOR OF THE SYSTEM.

Whenever the economy of the life-giving fluid has been vitated, it should be immediately called to help. It drives out pernicious humours, stimulates the absorbents, overcomes the obstinate state of the pores of the skin, regenerates the disordered organism, reestablishes health and spirits, and brings back a bright colour to the pallid complexion.

Thousands of testimonials establish its immense success for curing Scrofula or King's Evil, Skin and Mercurial diseases, Boils, Carbuncles and Ulcers, Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings, Enlargement and Ulceration of the Bones, Joints, Glands or Ligaments, Erysipelas, Epilepsy, Gout, Rheumatism and all diseases originating from a depraved and imperfect state of the Blood.

is compounded from carefully selected drugs, free from all mineral admixtures and may be Safely Relied on by all needing a medicine to build up the system, cleanse the blood and restore the healthy action of the secretive organs.

HAVAS' AGENCY

Paris 17th

An attempt, to blow up, with dynamite, the Mansion House in London, the residence of the Lord Mayor, and Head Police Court, has been happily, frustrated. The attempt is attributed to the Fenians, who are credited with a conspiracy to terrorize the city.

IRISH EMIGRATION.

Mr J H Tuke, in a remarkably able article in the February number of the '19th Century' magazine, deals with this great question, and as many of his remarks on emigration to Canada apply with equal force to the Plate, we have no doubt the article in question will possess much interest for the majority of our readers. We extract the following:—

"In laying before the public last spring the result of my enquiries into the distress in Ireland, I ventured to express the opinion that for the poorest class in certain tracts in the West—poor from the inherent poverty of the soil—the only remedy was systematic and organised emigration. 'For these people,' I wrote, 'the dwellers at Camus, or Carraroe with its five-and-twenty miles of alternate huts and boulders, neither peasant proprietary nor fixity of tenure can be expected to be remedial measures, and if it be objected that these are exceptional cases, it would not be difficult to bring forward many other localities of which, in varying degrees, the same might be said.' For these I urged that emigration, in the absence of local employment, seemed a remedy much to be preferred to scattering them over waste lands in Ireland, which needed the tardy and costly operation of reclamation; adding, 'whatever may be the merits of 'scattering,' I cannot think that its claims can compete with emigration.' And in reply to the argument that the natural forces at work, now drawing thousands to seek a livelihood in other lands, are sufficiently powerful without any legislative interference,' I pointed out that, as a matter of fact, these forces rarely touched the very poorest, who were unable to help themselves; further adding: 'That what seems to me to be needed is that families should be assisted to emigrate from overcrowded parts of Ireland under careful and systematic supervision, and that this oversight should not end in Ireland, but should be continued under the charge of properly qualified agents in Canada or elsewhere, whose object it should be to give assistance in the selection of land or in obtaining employment for the emigrants.'

A more influential pen than mine writes in the same strain. In a paper recently laid by Lord Dufferin before the Irish Land Commission, after enumerating the measures which he recommends for adoption, he adds:—

"But for the extreme west of Ireland, what hope is there from any of the foregoing devices? Along that region there extends a broad riband of hopeless misery which no change in the present relations of landlord and tenant is likely to alleviate. Perennial destitution accentuated by periodical seasons of famine has been the sole experience of its inhabitants during the present century. To convert these poor people into peasant proprietors would be impracticable. To make them copy-holders under a quit-rent would be scarcely more to the purpose. Even to give them the land for nothing would not prove a permanent alleviation. Many of them, indeed, have no land at all. What then is to be done? Manifestly the only remedy is emigration. At this moment emigration is being much discredited, but to anyone who, like myself, has seen its effects, such an outcry has no meaning. In my opinion it is simply inhuman to perpetuate from generation to generation a state of things which has been deplored by every traveller who has visited those parts during the last eighty years. Within the compass of little more than a week, after a pleasant voyage, a proportion of these unhappy multitudes might be landed on the wharves of Quebec, the women healthier, the children rosier, the men in better heart and spirits than ever they have been since the day they were born. Four or five days more would plant them without fatigue or inconvenience on a soil so rich that it has only to be scratched to grow the best wheat and barley that can be raised on the Continent of America."

With the object of seeing for myself these future harvest fields of the world, and of enquiring how far they could be peopled with advantago by the poor people of the west of Ireland, I paid a visit to America last autumn, and returned a few weeks ago. I paid particular attention to the rising and important States of Iowa and Minnesota, and to our own Province of Manitoba in the great North-Western Territory, meeting with a large number both of older residents and of newly arrived emigrants from Europe, Canada, and the more easterly States of America. From these gentlemen I invariably received the greatest courtesy in the prosecution of my inquiries, and from them as well from other sources I received very explicit information which enables me to corroborate all that has been said of the fertility of these vast tracts. In Minnesota, the 'Catholic Colonisation Association,' directed by the splendid energy of Bishop Ireland, is providing a home and an honourable future for many a poor Irishman or others from the eastern States; while in Manitoba the Canadian Government is holding out the most liberal inducement to any one who will come to till the soil. Without wishing to recommend the Canadian territory as a more suitable field for Irish emigration than that offered by the United States, I shall refer to it chiefly in the following remarks; for if there is to be, as I uphold, organised emigration (gradually carried out) on a scale to be termed national, it is manifestly more natural and convenient to deal with our own colony of Canada than with a foreign Government, even although it be as friendly as that of the United States. There is also the additional reason for doing so that the Canadian lands are offered free, whilst those in the States must now be purchased at a cost of 10s. to 30s. per acre. But anything that I have to say in favour of Western Canada as a field for Irish industry may be considered to apply with equal or greater force to the States of Minnesota and Iowa.

FRENCH SHIPPING BOUNTIES

The passage of the French Shipping Bounty Law has at last attracted the attention which it merits in England, and in the papers received by the last mail we find long articles on the measure which would have been far more 'apropos' if published before the law was passed English shipbuilders begin to think that this law will soon close up their yards and enable the French shipbuilders to construct steamers and vessels infinitely cheaper than in England.

A protection so monstrous as that which this line creates reminds us of the celebrated navigation laws which held for over 300 years in England, and which were mainly instrumental in building up the maritime power of England; but times have so much changed since then that it is doubtful if the other European nations and the American Government will tolerate a shipping protectorate so great as that now established by France. It is more probable that the different nations will resort to reciprocatury measures and each nation have its own shipping bounty law. We take from a late London paper the following, which gives the English view of this extraordinary French law:—

Our Government have been even mors remiss than was at first supposed in regard to the French shipping bounties. They have repeatedly promised to do all that was possible to induce France to abandon the project for creating a mercantile marine at the expense of this nation: but it now appears that Lord Granville and Sir Chas. Dilke have not made the most of their opportunities. On the contrary, they have failed to reedeem their own solemn promises of energetic remonstrance. The earlier summaries of Sir Charles Dilke's answers to Mr. Ritchie on this subject omitted an important fact They made it clear enough that there was no longer any prospect of the French being converted to British views on the bounty question. Our neighbours have declined to accept the economic dictum that it is unwise to burden the whole nation with the cost of nursing special trades or industries. They are anxious to create a mercantile marine that shall be second to none in the world of commerce and that shall give them the highest naval status, and they believe the advantages aimed at are worth the price to be paid. The effect of the bounties will be to enable the beilding of ships in France cheaper than elsewhere, and to permit French shipowners to carry cargoes at lower rates than is possible by owners not supported by State subsidies. The tendency of this must be to secure general preference for French builders and owners, and to cause the British building-yards to be deserted while our ships either lie idly in dock or are transferred to the French flag. The foreign bounties on refined sugar have completely destroyed this industry in Great Britain, and there is no reason to suppose that the marine advantages which we possess will more than counterbalance the effect of the bounties, and save our merchant shipping from the fate which has befallen the sugar trade. In fact, no one ventures to dispute that the premiums offered by the French Government to cultivate the national mercantile marine are likely to have disastrous effect on both the British shipbuilding and carrying trades.

A fight took place recently in Joao Gomes, in Minas, between a police force and six Italians who were accused of a considerable robbery on a fazenda near Barbacena. The causes of the disturbance are not as yet definitely known but it is stated that some of the police authorities under indictment for unbailable crimes have continued to exercise their functions.

The Ceara slave-dealers who were recently prevented from sending slaves on board the coasting steamer Para, have sent 45 of them to Aracaty to be embarked ou a little trading steamer for Parahyba, where they will await the next southward bound steamer for Rio These slaves are destined for sale in the province of Minas Geraes.

A correspondent of the Provincia of S. Paulo, relates that an official at S. Carlos do Pinhal having summoned a physician to serve as a juryman, he was taken into a room and was beaten nearly to death. The physician did not wish to be annoyed with such matters and took this course to relieve himself from any further summons. The officer was an old man of some sixty odd years.

According to the Artista, of Rio Grande, of the 4th inst, a contract was signed on the 1st between the captain of the port of Rio Grande, as the representative of the Government, and the proprietors of the Arroio dos Ratos coal mines for supplying the provincial flotilla with coal for a term of five years, dating from the 8th of March. The price stipulated is 20$ per ton, the Government to pay all the expenses of embarking it. From this it would seem that the Rio Grande coal is not so cheap after all!

The President of Minas Geraes has signed a contract with Dr Candido Jose Coellho de Moura for the construction of a railway between San Joao d'El-Rey and Oliveira.

The late heavy rains caused a slight land slide on the Sao Paulo railway, between Santos and Sao Paulo, but it was quickly remedied. A downward train was delayed only about two hours.

After deduction of the expenditure, taxes, dividends and reserve fund, there remains a net balance of 43,629$081 which it is recommended to carry to the account of new lines.

The works on the Paulo Affonso railroad, province of Alagoas, were suspended on the 16th inst and it is stated that those on the 'Camocim a Sobral' railroad, in the province of Ceara, will be suspended shortly. The reason of these suspensions is that the credit voted by the Legislature for the construction of these lines has been exhausted, the new credits asked for by the minister of agriculture not having been voted.

The suburban trains on Pedro II railroad which leave the city at 12.30 a.m. and Cascadura at 11.10 p.m. have been abolished, the reasons being that the trains, owing to the limited number of passengers, caused the company a daily loss of 42$260 and 45$690 respectively. Apart from the great inconvenience resulting from his proceeding to the residents of these suburbs, it seems to us a very short-sighted policy on the part of the company, for if the public is deprived of the convenience of reaching town or returning home at late hours of the evening many will certainly remove altogether from these suburbs and the loss of the company will be considerable.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Between no Rain and two much Loan the public of this city are fairly used-up. The Clerk of the Weather has evidently some spite against the capital of the Republic as if determined to leave us all frying in our own fat. On Thursday it rained splendidly outside of Mercedes and about Salto, filling all the 'lagunas' to overflowing and rejoicing sheepfarmers, who were in wretched spirits previous to the saving downpour. Yesterday it rained everywhere, heavily at Canunelas and Mercedes. Our subscriber was right in his prediction.

There will be Mass, and sermon in English, to-morrow at the San Francisco Church, at 11 o'clock, as usual.

'Muy bien.' President Roca issued a decree yesterday which will put a stop to much of the extravagant waste of the Pipe Water that has been going on for such a long time. For the future all the public and private establishments which the Provincial Government used to supply with Pipe Water free, will punctually have to pay for what they use, and it is pretty certain that they will not use so much as they formerly did, so there will be the more for the public.

Our old friend, Mr. Ackerly, was kind enough to decide for us yesterday the question of the Great Dust Storm. It occurred on the 19th of March, 1866, exactly 15 years ago, to-day. Mr. A. was on board the steamer Porteña, coming from Montevideo, and she was caught in it while the passengers were at dinner: it came on like a black wall from the S.W., and the captain had barely time to turn the steamer's head to it: heavy chairs and other things were swept along the deck or overboard. The force of the wind was appalling. In this city there was a panic and people thought that the Day of Judgment had come. The houses shook in the fearful blast; and the shrieks of terrified women and children could be faintly heard amidst the tempest. Self and brother editor were caught in the Boca Railway train, on the way home to Standard Hall at Barracas. The glass roof of the Hotel de Paris fell in, and Mr. Shoobridge most gallantly saved the lives of several ladies stopping there. It took six waiters to keep the door of the Cafe Colon shut. Calle Larga, Barracas, was strewn with uprooted trees, zinc roofs, wooden houses, white hats and lord knows what, blown from lord knows where. In fact, such a storm was never seen before and has never been seen since in Buenos Aires; and the strangest part of the business was that Mr. Lettsom, a distinguished astronomer, who was then H.M. Chargé d'Affaires at Montevideo, predicted it to an hour. It is satisfactory that neither Dr Gould nor Mr Leighton Jordan have predicted any affair of this terrible kind for to-day, although many subscribers, who know as much of meteorology as we do of watch-making, anticipate quite as bad a storm to-day, the 15th anniversary of the terrible one we have briefly sketched.

Mr. Leighton Jordan, P.E.L.S and F.R.G.S has republished in pamphlet form under the title 'Skirmishes in the Vanguard of Science,' the numerous scientific articles from his talented pen which appeared in the English papers of this city between August 1880 and February 1881. It is an interesting brochure for those who are privileged to grapple the grandest of sciences—Astronomy.

We most warmly congratulate Dr. A. V. Lopez, the talented editor of the Revista Militar y Naval, on the great improvement in that paper which is now quite on a level with most of the publications of its kind in Europe. Although military reading is generally very dry for civilians, the matter in the Revista is so diversified and well-chosen, that non-military men may safely take it up, certain to find pleasant reading matter in it.

Dr. Wineberg, so well-known as an agriculturist in the Carabellas Islands, San Fernando, presented us yesterday with a splendid Cheddar cheese, the finest ever made in this country. We invite our subscribers to come and lunch to-day. No beer.

The big prize in the Caridad Lottery on the 30th of this month is 40,000 pats gold.

Considerable alarm is felt for the fate of Mr. Natalio Roldan, who left here some three months ago with his own family and that of a friend in Salta and has not since been heard of. Neither in Salta nor the Chaco has anything been heard of the party, but it is supposed that their little steamer is aground somewhere in the river Bermejo.

We had the pleasure yesterday of a visit from Mr. Ernest Gibson, who has just returned from Patagones. He rode from that place to Gil Blas Bay, and gives us most consoling opinions about that place. Mr. Buckland and all the other English settlers down there are flourishing.

It is announced that Messrs. Samuel B. Hale and Co., who negociated the Emprestito Popular Loan, won the big prize, ($300,090) in the drawing on the 1st inst. As they are the largest holders of the loan they have, of course, the best chance. Mr. John Brown of Lujan is the only one of the general public, we believe, who has yet carried off the big prize in these drawings.

Father Jordan will preach to-morrow at the Cathedral, and Father Marcelino Benavente at Santo Domingo.

There is weeping and gnashing of teeth in Rosario, owing to the only ice manufactory in the place having broken down or burst up, we can not make out which, and the supplies of 'hielo' have now to be procured from Buenos Aires.

The corn merchants of Chicago recently offered a premium of 20,000 gold dollars for the best means of exterminating rats, as these animals make frightful havoc amongst the enormous deposits of grain in that city. Hundreds of answers poured in. That of the winner of the prize was: 'Get more cats.'

Some of our most estimable colleagues are sorely indignant that the Director of the Military School at Palermo has prohibited political newspapers in that establishment, on the ground that by so doing he deprives the young warriors of the most valuable mental pabulum. We are thoroughly with the Director of the School in this matter. Boys in this country are too prone to politics, almost before they are out of the nursery, and it is decidedly a wise step to train the future defenders of the Republic free from the pernicious doctrines of party spirit especially as preached by too many of the newspapers of the day. In no European school, private or public, would newspapers be thought of: besides, the boys would not care a fig for them, and if asked their political opinions, would laugh in the face of their questioner and consider him 'off his head.' Does any sane man suppose that Gladstone, Beaconsfield, or Bismarck knew what politics were while at school in their early teens? They would not be the men they are now if they did. Politics, as practised in these countries, are simply rank poison or the minds of the rising generation, and the Director of the Palermo School deserves, in place of abuse, high credit for refusing to allow the apple of political discord to be thrown amongst his pupils by the fiery twaddle in the daily press.

Hermann, the Czar of all the Wizards, will give a grand farewell performance at the Colon Theatre on Tuesday next for the benefit of the Asilo de Misericordia and the Sotiedad de Socorros Mutuos. The great conjuror will perform his best tricks on the occasion, and an enormous audience may be expected.

Dr Roach, Governor-elect, left town yesterday for Arrecites, where another course of dinners and festivity awaits him. The popular Doctor, before he takes out his diploma as Governor, will have eaten far more dinners than aspirants to the English Bar are obliged to eat before they are privileged to 'make the worse appear the better cause before Her Majesty's Judges.'

Dean Dillon will leave for Ireland early next month, on an Immigration mission for the National and Provincial Governments. As will be seen by an advertizement in another column, Mr Eastman, the well-known city auctioneer, will sell the Dean's furniture by auction on Friday next, at his house on the Flores Road. It is all new and in the most refined taste, and those on the look-out for handsome furniture should not fail to attend the sale.

The well-known restaurateur, Mr Kramer, has the 'buffet' of the Italian Exhibition in hand. Bacchus and Gambrinus are at the door of the saloon, ready to welcome warmly all thirsty souls.

The capital of Entre Rios is to be changed from Concepcion to Parana.

The latest news from Lima is that its lovely dames and damsels refuse to look the same side of the street as the Chilian officers. All the houses are closed to them, and the fair ones have even sworn not to dance or touch a piano while they are there. The result is that Lima is like a city of the dead after nightfall, and the invaders find it awfully 'slow.'

The French mail steamer Niger arrived at Montevideo yesterday from Bordeaux. The mails will be up this morning.

The extension of the Andine Railway is going ahead splendidly. There are 1200 navvies at work, and the rails have how reached Fraga, a town only about a dozen leagues from San Luis. Viva!

Bonos Provinciales	1½ premium.

This was decidedly the day of greatest excitement on the Bolsa, and from the minute the ring opened until the brokers were turned out at 4 o'clock speculation continued ripe, the bulls certainly gaining the day.

Gold opened at 29.05 with a tremendous hub-bub, and spite of everything about the rain and the loan advanced, closing at 29.10. At half past 1 o'clock to-day nobody believed either in the rain or in the loan, and every imaginable bola was current that astronomers the wisest since the days of Sesostris and Ramsay had predicted that there would be no rain for 47 days yet. Others dropped from the clouds with speaking telegrams from London offering higher and better terms than all the others put together. It was in such an atmosphere of predicted sorrow and certain doubt that a new bull entered the ring and fought right and left, and then the market rose. The sales of the day reached 1,109,000 pats., and at after hours nearly another million bought and sold.

Cedulas have been flattened by the Municipality and continue weak at 93½.

The French packet Niger entered today, rather behind time; she sails on 24th. Mr Samson, the talented agent of the Allan line, leaves in her for Europe.—

At the Plaza Once some fine prices were paid for wool to-day—

Mr Spengenberg, of Gualeguaychu, was welcomed on 'Change; in Entre-Rios they are suffering from drought.—

A cargo of Glasgow coal sold in port, 800 tons, at 8⅞.—

Another sale of Rio Negro lands has been effected by Mr Rom at the Central Land Office; the land has sold at such a good price that the owner has got back all his capital and remains with 8 leagues over nice. We compliment Mr Rom on this brilliant sale.

Nat. Bank shares are rising, like the issue of a King, and were done at afterhours for April at 79¼, many outriders have given orders, but as the rates have risen they can't be filled. Bonos Provincianos at 1½ prem., very firm.

The meeting of the Municipality was the business of the day, 18 members present. The following were the bids for the Mercado del Plata, rent per month till end of the year:—

Teodocio Pizarro	145,160
Peter A Garland	125,000
Juan C Varela	102,000
Jose M Ramos	146,550
Manuel Romero	125,000
J V Fuentes	130,000
Dordoni and Gonsalez	180,000
Joaquim Sanchos	155,000
Marcelino Gonsalez	156,000

Mr Sanchos got the contract at 155,000 m/c per month, being 55,000 m/c in advance of the lease now expiring. It will be seen that this market alone if sold would pay off all the floating debt of the Municipality.

Nat. Government bills were discounted today at 9 per cent. This time twelve months they were difficult to do at 20 per 'quanto mutatur ab illo.'

The meeting of Lanus deposits shareholders was held to-day, Mr C Lumb re-elected president, and same directors; the Government lease was shown 6000 fts per mes for 1 year with power to renew for 4, the place will be insured for $100,000 stg., the sorrows of this Comp are now over.

The Memphis is expected on 25th, will load some cargo at Montevideo for Falklands $250 guaranteed, and leaves on 26th.

The President of the Republic issued a decree to-day, extending the time for paying city Contribucion Directa to 1st April.

The rain came down at last, and the darkened liquidation room at 4 o'clock and the rain coming down on the glass roof of the Bolsa pitter, patter, pit, was still insufficient to remind many of their very erring judgment this morning about the weather and things in general.

At 3 o'clock there was a decided reaction in gold, and we are not at liberty to say the cause. Suffice it to say that gold rose at once to 29.15 buyers, and at 4 o'clock one party sold 200,000 pats. for end of month at 29.10, and then 50,000 at 29.12½ and then 20,000 at 29.15, and market closed buyers and hard.

National Bank Shares very firm and buyers offering freely for end of April at 79½ and something they said done at 79½. The market looks as if the price for April will soon be 80.

Mr Scharffenorth reports the following charters—

The Dalton, a new Lampert & Holt steamer, is due to morow with dates 19th; she has already engaged 10,000 salted hides for Antwerp at 35s and 10 o|o.

The Copernicus for Bremen nearly full 1,800 bales, 4,000 salted hides, 30 and 35s.

The Plato full; sails on 26th.

North German Lloyd Braunschweig will arrive on 23d or 24th, and sails 5th April direct, touching at Bordeaux; a convenience for passengers: merchants complain of treatment of North German Lloyd Company, reducing the number of their steamers and injuring their own trade. Lamport and Holt's who better watch the trade have put on the steamer Copernicus for Havre, now full; she engaged in one day 2000 bales, and not a man on board knows a word of German or can say 'Hoch sollen sie leben.' Soon the English sailors will pick up the language with the bales, and will be singing 'Was ist des Deutschen Vaterland.'

All brokers and merchants returning home from their offices got well wet this evening. So best.

The leading article in this morning's Republica on the resumption of specie payments was the talk of the whole Bolsa, and as it is generally said that the talented editor of that paper full well knows the views of our leading men increased importance was attached to the statement. Affairs are on the eve of very great changes in this market when a well known and leading merchant stated that henceforward all his sales will be made in paper. It would seem that precisely what occurred in the U. States is going to happen here, and all who believe in the country and in the currency are destined to come out all right in the long run.

Perhaps the best news of the day is that there is more doing in wool, and some large piles in the deposits are at last moving off. It is estimated that within the last few days fully 10,000 bales have been disposed of, and the best proof of this is that the freight market is very hard and rising, and all the steam agents report plenty of cargo offering.

Exchange looks upward, the £10,000 passed yesterday is reported to be for mules bought. The Rovoie sailed to-day and the exchange rates close hard and with bills over. It is likely that for the French mail the rates will close higher, as all the brokers report plenty of bills offering.

The intense heat this morning surpassed all our previous summer experiences; it was hotter this morning at 9 o'clock a.m. than at noon every other day during the summer; the wind died off and not a breath of air was stirring. Yet spite of all this the Bolsa was thronged, and the ring opened in the midst of a roar greater than the breakers on the lovely beach at Pocitos. It was plainly evident that the market is at the moment a prey to much excitement, and what with the still pending loan and the still pending rain, and the great effort of the bulls to hold up the gold market; the moment is one of intense excitement and intense speculation.

At last the opening of the Oficina de Cambios has become the great topic in commercial and banking circles; the opinion is gaining ground that if the National Government carries out its intention of consolidating the debt due the Bank the difficulty is at once solved. The leading article in the Pampa on the subject was the talk of the whole market, with unerring judgment our colleague says:

"No greater glory could be achieved by our new Government than to establish specie payments, and thus abolish the forced currency which the two previous presidencies had brought about."

Pre ident Roca's Cabinet is fixed in its purpose to carry out this splendid reform, and bankers are beginning to take note that the element within the control of the Government and the banks are ample for the purpose.

Visconde de Januario's work on the South American Republics is a most remarkable book, and that portion which bears on this country our colleague, the Tribuna Nacional, is publishing and doing good service by the publication. President Roca intends to publish it in English, as the Viscount when he visited this country had both eyes well open and saw and judged everything from a most practical point. Messrs Ostwald & Martinez are now preparing a second edition of Colonel Olascoaga's book on the Rio Negro to which will be added General Racedo's work. The new edition will be ready in a month and will be two volumes. Viscount Januario, in his work, gives the following summary of Argentine railways—

F C Central Argentino	396.06
F C Oeste de Buenos Ayres Chivilcoy	174.69
Ramificacion de Mercedes a Lobos	68.43
F C de Buenos Ayres a Dolores	211.39

F C Gualeguay a Porto Entre-Rios	9.66
F C Central del Norte	399.28
F C a Campana	77.28

In 1876 there were in construction 4,704.40 kilometers and 2,405.46 kilometers decreed. In 1878 there were 2,700 kilometers railway opened to public and the Viscount gives the following yearly traffic return of Argentine railways which always will interest and show the great application of the sojourning diplomat in obtaining such useful figures

	Pasageros	Toneladas

The following splendid resumen of French commerce for 1880 will much interest this market; the figures are truly surprising:—

"Detailed returns are now issued of the foreign trade of France in 1880, completing the abstract given last week. The increase of 145 millions of francs in the imports of articles of food was not derived from wheat and flour, as the value of these imports fell from 857 millions in 1879 to 786 millions in 1880. The imports from the U. States receded from 1,320,543 tons to 1,243,971 tons, and those from Russia from 495,428 tons to 327,320 tons. The greatest increase was in wines, the value of which rose from 120 millions of francs to 284 millions. Nearly the whole of these imports were from Spain and Italy, but chiefly from the former country, which sent 5,036,537 hectolitres (the hectolitre=22 gallons), against 1,581,537 from Italy. The imports of live meat diminished, the greatest falling off being from Algeria, the French colony sending only 41,989 oxen and 419,014 sheep in 1880, against 55,299 and 669,439 in 1879. No trade has yet been created between the U. States and France for either cattle or dead meat, salt pork and lard excepted. The imports of wool rose from 294 millions of francs to 329 millions. About one-third of the total quantity, or 50,147 tons, was from England, under which head is included the Cape and Australia. La Plata stands next with 26,880 tons. There was a small augmentation in raw silk, but other textiles remained stationary. Oil seeds increased in value from 93 millions to 111 millions, the imports from British India having risen from 58,000 tons to 107,000 tons. The imports of coal also increased from 7,662,384 tons to 8,442,922 tons, of which 3,291,555 tons were from England and 4,167,010 tons from Belgium. There was an increase of 3 millions in ore, but a falling off in pig and wrought iron and steel, which together only amounted to a total value of 19 millions of francs. The imports of iron manufactures were, however, more active, and ships, almost wholly from England, increased from 8,147,000 francs to 19,196,000 francs; machinery from 37,800,000 francs to 41,607,000 frcs; tools from 5,141,000 francs to 6,364,000 frcs, and divers articles of hardware from 10,121,000 frcs. to 12,641,000 francs. In textiles the imports of cotton yarn fell from 35,167,000 francs to 31,610,000 frcs.; woollen yarn rose from 14,545,000 francs to 15,712,000 frcs. Cotton piece goods increased from 62,287 000 francs to 62,554,000 frcs., and woollens from 68,176,000 frcs. to 77,263,000 francs. The exports of manufactures show a general rise, the only noteworthy exception being refined sugar, the amount of which fell from 100 millions of francs to 85 millions. On the other hand, silk stuffs increased from 226 millions to 240 millions, woollen goods from 309 millions to 354 millions, cotton piece goods from 67 millions to 76 millions, and mercery and buttons from 135 millions to 149 millions. Among articles of food there was a falling off in the exports of both wine and brandy, the former from 267 millions in 1879 to 225 millions in 1880, and the latter from 103 millions to 84 millions. The exports of butter increased from 60 millions to 74 millions."

Dear Sir

AMERICAN AGRICULTURAL COMPETITION

On Saturday, the 8th iust, a paper was read to a meeting of the Annandale Farmers' Club, held at Lockerbie, by Mr John M'Culloch, Denbie Mains, on 'America as a competitor in the world's markets.' The paper was chiefly based on Mr. M'Culloch's observations in America for over six months last year. In the U. States it was considered unconstitutional to interfere with a contract entered into voluntarily; in land tenure there was no superior but the State, no entail but family settlement, and with the heir paying the personal debts of his predecessor the same as the other people, no legislative protection of either landlord or tenant. Better education also formed a vast power in favour of the Americans; but 'prima facie' soil and climate had a more direct bearing on the question. Speaking of the Missisippi region, he said the soil in the central basin is a black loam, from six inches to several feet in depth, very fertile, and capable of growing any plant which the climate of the region permits. The western rising ground is a chocolate-coloured loess of great tertility, so much so that wheat will grow on that excavated from a depth of 100ft. In the east it gets more calcareous, or in some portions resembles our best red soils, and these are apparently, as they knew from experience, much more readily exhausted. One peculiarity of Americau soils is that stiff clays are rarely seen. The climate did not alter much as to moisture in the central belt, although more moist in the north and less so in the east the rainfall was more regular and the season more decided than in the west of this central basin. The dryness of autumn and early spring might be noted from the fact that one self-binding reaper cut 240 acres, and one single plough, with a 16-inch share, ploughed, from August to May, 300 to 400 acres. The grain was partly stacked, and often remained a long time without any covering, but he never saw a stack thatched. No doubt in the extreme north the long winter hindered cultivation, and made the keep of live stock more expensive; but, taken as a whole, the climate is superior to ours during the season of growth. The fertility of the soil is incomparably greater than ours, as wheat can be grown continuously for 20, 30, or 50 years without change of crop or great decrease of yield. Again, for easy culture and harvesting of the crops Americans possessed advantages over British farmers. Improved implements could be moved with a freedom which in our moist climate and generally rolling surface were out of the question. But the Americans had a few disadvantages. The long winter of the wheat region caused the work to be pressed into a short space of time, and their great distance from European markets was against them. As to the cost of production, he had taken some pains to arrive at a conclusion as to the lowest cost at which an acre of wheat can be raised, and he made it 7.10 dols. or 29s. 4d. Mr Dalrymple, the eminen wheat farmer of Dakota, gave about 7 dols.; Mr Williamson, M P, 8 dols., and Messrs Pell and Read 10 dols., but it could be proved that the latter estimates were much above what would be required with sufficient capital and skill. He maintained that wheat could be landed at Liverpool without loss at 36s. per qr., Mr Williamson said 32s.: Mr Barclay, M. P. (at a profit), 36s.; Mr Biggar, 33s. 4d.; Messrs Read and Pell, 47s. 9 1/2d. Here the Commissioners made their greatest blunder. By adopting a high cost of production and a low yield, they arrived at their Liverpool figures; while they adopted the average yield of the whole country they did not include the lower freights of the Eastern States. In addition the statistical yield was in all the States much less than the reality; in California so much so that the whole apparent yield was shipped, and yet sufficient was left to feed the inhabitants and furnish seed for the following crop. With improvements in the means of transport and the consolidation of railway interests, the price per qr. might be still further reduced, and oatmeal and Indian corn would also be sent to this country in increasing quantity. It was said beef was a product in which the Americans cannot compete with the British farmers. He thought it was just the one in which they were most to be feared. At present the commission was chiefly from the Eastern States and Canada, but he found that in the Indian territory cattle can be and are produced at 37s. 6d. for 50 stones weight—that sum even covering a rail freight of 200 miles. As it was admitted that £6 a head would ship them to Europe, it seemed hard for the British to compete and pay any rent at all. Dairy farming was chiefly, on account of skilled labour being required, practised in the Eastern States, so that in the meantime, and on the average prices for dairy produce might not fall to any appreciable degree. But the Eastern American would give uscheese at 8 cents and the Western at 6 cents per lb. Sheep were increasing in numbers, but meantime in America there was a singular prejudice in favour of cattle. As the profits on this stock became better understood, he had no doubt they would be much cultivated and large numbers sent to Europe. Among the modes of meeting this competition, he suggested the reduction of our "warlike and otherwise unnecessary expenditure," the abolition of entail and class privileges, and the assertion by agriculturists of a fair share in the councils of the nation. In conclusion, he said the market was now in their favour, the temper of the country was in favour of legislative emancipation, and if they were at all careful in entering on new bargains, prosperity might return to the tenant cultivator. Lengthened tenure, except in a clause of option to give a year's notice or a years rent, was a speculation in which only rich men should indulge, the more especially as the steady rise in the price of agricultural produce witnessed during the last century might now be considered as having turning the other way. A very hearty vote of thanks was accorded to the lecturer.

del Sr. D. Matias Ramos Mejia

En nuestra casa, San Martin 51,

El Viernes 8 de Abril,

A las 2 de la tarde,

Venderemos al mejor precio y dinero de contado en uno o mas lotes y por cuenta del Sr D. Matias Ramos Mejia, este magnifico rodeo, compuesto de:

650 cabezas mestizas Durham, verdaderas Short-horn, que se pusieron en rodeo en un solo potrero, alambrado desde el año 1862, tienen por origen el toro mas escojido de la hacienda que vendio en esa epoca la afamada estancia del Sr Alfaro (de Canuelas) y nunca han sido servidas sino por toros puros de lo mejor, importados uno y otros de la renombrada cabaña de los 'Tapiales,' por cuya razon tiene este ganado la misma pureza de sangre, ofreciendo la ventaja que la paricion de los ultimos anos esta toda orejana.

Es precisamente de este ganado de donde se extrajeron las magnigcas vacas que constituyen el conocido y acreditado tambo en Ramos Mejia, que siempre han estado servidas por toros puros de lo mejor en Buenos Ayres y que dan 22 a 24 cuartas de leche sin apurarlas.

En el rodeo que se vende hay gran cantidad de estas tamberas.

Se ve, pues, tomando su origen y la fecha (1862) que este ganado es clasificado de mestizo por su proprietario, cuando sus cruzas las clasifican hoy de ¾ y ⅞.

La venta se hara por todo lo que pisa.

Los dias Miercoles y Sabados se parara rodeo, y habra en la Estacion Maipu (F.C. del Sud) un breck a 4 caballos, que en 2½ hora conduzira a los a los interesados a visitar las haciendas hasta Mari Huincul.

Para el Gran Remate especial

DE

ANIMALES FINOS

De las razas, vacuno, caballar y lanar

Del gran Establecimiento

BLANDENGUES

Partido de Chascomus

Sobre la via ferrea del Sud

TREN ESPRESO IDA Y VUELTA

Que tendra lugar los dias 25, 26 y 27 de Marzo.

Habiendo vendido el magnifico y valioso establecimiento conocido por Blandengues, al Sr D Benito Lando y no habiendo entrado en esa venta los ganados finos de todas las especies, el propietario nos ha autorizado para proceder a su realizacion en remate publico, en lotes pequeños al gusto de los compradores.

Como las haciendas de que se trata son casi en su mayor parte finas y cuya venta demandara mas tiempo necesitandose como es consiguiente mas de un dia de remate, y en el deseo de que los señores que quieran asistir a el, puedan hacerlo con toda comodidad, hemos creido conveniente fijar la gran feria para tres dias, y en oportunidad anunciaremos el dia y hora de la salida del tren espreso.

El establecimiento Blandengues es celebre por sus crias finas y aunque nunca ha presentado sus productos en los remates que se dan en la ciudad.

Todos los criadores de la Republica saben que alli no se han encontrado dinero, ni se han ahorrado gastos para estar a la vanguardia de los primeros establecimientos del pais, y asi es que desde muchos años atras se han introducido alli los mejores animales que se necesitaban para el refinamiento de las razas tanto lanar como caballar, yeguarizo y vacuno de todo lo cual hay animales especiales, ya sean puros como mestizos.

Las especies que existen en 'Blandengues' se componen de majadas, tipos de cabaña en ovejas y padres puros Rambouillet de la Cabaña Imperial, hoy Nacional de Francia, majadas Lincoln servidas por carneros puros importados directamente de Europa, majadas finas Rambouillet, yeguas puras Normandas, yeguas para sangre de carrera importadas de Inglaterra. En esta raza (la yeguariza) hay animales notables y de gran merito, de distintas razas, servidas por magnificos padrillos puros introducidos directamente de Europa y lo mejor que ha venido al pais.

En el ganado vacuno mestizo hay animales de mucho merito, y en cuanto a lo puro, hay vacas, vaquillonas y toros de la raza Durham que estamos seguros no dejaran nada que desear. Al anticipar este aviso a los senores hacendados tanto de esta Republica como de la Oriental e Imperio del Brazil, lo hacemos con el objeto de que se vengan preparando para este ramate que podemos reputar como el mas importante que se ha dado hasta hoy entre nosotros de ganados finos de todas las especies.

Hoy que esta demostrado de una manera evidente que la riqueza de nuestra tierra consiste en la ganaderia, y que cuanto mas nos dediquemos a su refinamiento, tanto mas aumenta la riqueza publica y privada por el valor que toman las especies y los campos, nos parece oportuno llamar la atencion de los Sres. Hacendados, para que con tiempo se preparen a adquirir animales fiuos de toda especie nacidos en el pais e importados directamente, ya aclimatados y que no se ofrecen todos los dias en venta.
